Gladys Scott Bothe

Gladys Scott Bothe passed away on February 15, 2012. She was born in Liverpool, England on April 15, 1923. She came to the US with her parents, Peter and Prudence Scott as a young girl. She graduated from Girls Commercial in Brooklyn and married Henry Bothe in 1942. They raised three children and successfully established and ran an auto repair shop known for the high quality of their work. In spite of her fear of flying, she became an accomplished pilot. She was known for her kindness and thoughtfulness to everyone she met. She loved animals and enjoyed watching the beautiful birds in the yard and canal behind her house in Jupiter. She is much beloved by her family.

She is survived by her husband Henry, daughters Lynn Best and Barbara Chichester, son Bill Bothe, and grandchildren Jimmy and Cindy.

A Memorial Service will be held on Monday, February 20, 2012 at 5pm at Taylor & Modeen Funeral Home, 250 Center Street, Jupiter, Florida where friends may call after 4PM. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in Gladys's name to Adopt a Cat Rescue Shelter, 804 US Highway 1, Suite #1, Lake Park, FL 33403, Attn: Debbie or call 561 351-1504. Donations may also be made to the Salvation Army.
