“ For Deacon Frank's wife ,Loyola , Family Member sand Friends

Imagine Deacon Frank saying these words to you now.

To Those I Love and Those Who Love Me
When I am gone, release me, let me go.
I have so many things to see and do.
You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears,
be happy that we had so many years.
I gave you my love, you can only guess
how much you gave to me in happiness.
I thank you for the love you each have shown,
but now its time I traveled on.
So grieve a while for me if grieve you must.
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
Its only for a while that we must part,
so bless the memories within your hearts.
I won't be far away, for life goes on.
So if you need me, call and I will come.
Though you can't see or touch me, I'll be near.
And if you listen with your heart, you'll hear
all of my love around you soft and clear.
And then, When you must come this way,
I'll Greet you with a smile and say"
"Welcome Home".

“ Gloria and I extend our condolences and assurances of prayer to Loyola and family members at this time of your grief; as, you mourn the passing of Deacon Frank from life to Life.

With you, we praise God for the gift of Deacon Frank and his kindness, his warm smile, and unassuming demeanor, and his faith in God the Father as revealed by Jesus Christ, his openness to the Holy Spirit, and his loyalty to the Catholic Church. Deacon Frank and his wife, Loyola, particularly helped me and others come to a deeper appreciation in the Life of the Holy Spirit and accepting Jesus Christ as one's personal Savior.

I was blessed to be friends with Deacon Frank and was encouraged by him when I was discerning to become a deacon. Deacon Frank and Loyola were residents in Algonac, Michigan at the time; and, he served as deacon at St. Catherine of Alexandria Catholic Church in Algonac.

Deacon Frank gifted all whom he met with a warm, welcoming smile, a genuine interest, and a kind and understanding word. He was able to truly listen and offer encouragement when necessary. He was a man of faith and a good witness to love, marriage and family.

Gloria and I remember Deacon Frank's kindness and friendship when he took us out on his sail boat and we sailed the North Channel and the St. Clair River.

May the peace of Jesus and the consolation of the Holy Spirit comfort Deacon Frank's wife, Loyola, family members and friends who mourn his passing from life to Life.

May the Holy Spirit strengthen you in the assurance of eternal life as promised by Jesus that all who believe in Him though they die will live forever.

Sincerely in Christ's love.
