“ My friend James
There are very few men that were as motivated as James, I loved the way he could run and stop and smell the roses all at the same time. He always had a kind word for everyone keeping our group motivated and doing it in a way that I looked up to the man. I am going to miss James, After he left for Florida we stayed in contact by telephone. When James came to town he would bring together all of his buddies for dinner and pass out gifts or money. James would never let you pay and we offered, James was that kind of man. Not everyone looking at each other! The bill was paid before we stood up. I always admired James, he was so dedicated to his work (seems like that's all he did, trying to make others happy) and people around him. James is one of those guys you say "dang I wish I could be like him". James was brilliant, and he put a lot of work keeping the Cobb Theaters loaded with advertising, and everything else under the sun. We went from slides to digital in the blink of an eye, of course letting his so called friends over at Cobb (take it from there).. Cobb Theaters or the owners hurt my buddy and as Forrest Gump would say "that's all I have to say about that". Some folks don't know how to act. They hurt him, did I say that enough. James you looked after everyone, cars, entertainment and dinners, you name it. James loved his family and spoke highly of them. His wife was a jewel and worked and stayed by his side until. I hope I got some of the things across about James, there are so many things I could say. James I love you brother and I will "miss you so". Sam "call me if you need anything". Now isn't that's what life is about?
