Jane Anne Wille

6/10/31 – 2/14/19

Jane Anne Wille, 87, passed away peacefully on Valentine's Day after a long battle with Alzheimer's disease. She will be laid to rest next to the love of her life and husband of 67 years, Wayne.

Jane was born and raised in Illinois. She moved to Florida after Wayne returned home from the Korean War. She was devoted to Christ and her country; volunteering for many years at her local church and always sporting a bit of the red, white & blue. Jane and Wayne also donated much of their time to the Meals on Wheels program.

Jane always had a smile on her face and a positive thing to say to all who met her. She leaves behind her sons, Chuck, John (Soraya), Steven (Linda), Joe (Kimla) and Patrick (Ladonna), her 11 grandchildren that were her pride and joy, Tyler, Carly, Natasha, Lindsay, J.L., Helen-Anne, Meghan, Jackson, Emily, Patrick Jr. and Nicholas, and by her sister Patricia Jane is preceded in death by her husband, her parents Laura and Charles Page and her brother, Chuck.

Jane more recently resided in Hobe Sound at the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Patrick and Ladonna, who both cared for her with patience and love.

“ Jane was like a second mother to me. I will forever remember her sharp wit and most of all her kind acts and the way she was always so giving of her time. I have fond memories growing up in Palm Springs with the Wille's and their 5 boys. I will forever be grateful to her and Wayne for remaining in my life the years that followed. She catered my wedding and helped me move. Above all she and Wayne were always a loving presence in my life. I know her legacy will carry on through her sons and grandchildren.
