

Janice M. Wielgus

August 26, 1928 - July 26, 2020

Cemetery

Riverside Memorial Park
19351 SE County Line Road
Jupiter, FL, 33469

Events

AUG	Funeral Service	11:00AM
6	<hr/>
	Taylor & Modeen Funeral Home
	250 Center Street, Jupiter, FL, US, 33458

Comments

“ Janice was one of my best teenage friends. She was also a bridesmaid at my wedding. She and I were the last survivors of the wedding party. Now I am the only one left. We tried to keep in touch down through the years, but it seemed time flew by too quickly. I realized I did not receive a Christmas card from her for the last two years, but because of the death of my own husband, Ken Ginter, and my son, Kenneth Ginter and then selling our home and moving to a retirement community, I didn't think much about it. But, today is Palm Sunday and I remember back over the years when Janice would wear her Easter outfit on Palm Sunday. I cannot quite remember the reason, but it had to do with not making clothes the center of Easter. That particular year I remember that her mother made her dress. It was while I was visiting at Janice's home that I met my husband as he came to visit there. We had wonderful teenage years. Even though I hadn't seen her for many years, there is still a feeling of loss as I look at her picture. I would think that the only survivor of Pastor and Mrs. Clutter's five children is Susanne. My sincere condolences to Susanne. I too, am the sole survivor of my siblings. I know how lonely that can be. My love to you Susanne as I remember you very well also!

Florence Ginter - April 11 at 12:41 AM