“ Joan M. Sabine will be greatly missed, and if you knew Joan you know she'd be rolling her eyes after reading this opening line. Joan didn't do trite sayings. But Joan will be genuinely and truly missed. If you knew Joan you laughed alot. At things that happened when you were together, like thinking her car was stolen after exiting a movie theater using the wrong exit only to find it in the opposite lot. Or things she later related to you that happened ONLY to Joan like when her car was totaled in a rainstorm at a train station in the only section that was flooded due to poor drainage.

I've had the pleasure of knowing Joan for over 25 years, and we traveled to Grand Cayman, Key West, Las Vegas, and Sedona having laughs and adventures along the way.

I know in the future, I will be seeing something funny or absurd and think I will have to text Sabine. I know I will miss her not being there to make that snarky comment or joke. I will miss getting her cards that were laugh out loud funny, with that Harry Potter stamp. I will miss my friend Joan.

My condolences to Bill and BJ and her family and friends. May God help them through their grief.

“ Joan and I worked together for many years and became friends along the line, she was a very smart and very funny lady, a great colleague and friend, and a trusted advisor. I am grateful to have had her in my life. I will miss her dearly.

“ So sad to hear of the loss. Joan demonstrated tremendous dedication to serving our customers at TD Bank and taught me a thing or two about the value of "caring" for our clients. I will remember her grandiose smile and willingness to help. Joan and her family will be in my prayers.

“ Shortly after joining the TD Family, Joan became an Ambassador to me helping many of us guide our way through the "new" bank. She gave everything of herself. She was always willing to help and no way not in her vocabulary. We enjoyed a few good laughs on the few occasions we were together. Rest in peace, my friend. I am a better person to having known you.

“ Joan started out as my boss. She quickly became one of my best friends. If I ever needed someone to make me laugh, Joan was the one to do it. She had the best sense of humor. Joan was a kind and loving person and would do anything for anybody. Chief (my nickname for her), you will be missed more than you'll ever know. RIP my dear friend. Till we meet again. Sue

“ I'll always remember playing poker with her and Bill at her families home in PA. back in the stone age. We had many laughs and good times. I'll miss her, she was one of the few really special people out there.

“ Joan, I've been thinking about you so much. Every time I think I'm going to send you a message I have to stop myself. I don't know if I'll ever stop thinking that. Mostly I think about how you're not here anymore to yell at me about something crazy that I did. You were always my level headed barometer. Joan, I remember the time my crazy hubs, yeah, you know who, said how I have no friends. Then he said well I have you. Joan, I don't have you anymore. You were the best friend anyone could have asked for. The only thing that would have made all of this better would be if the 3 of you - you, Bill and Wayne - would have finally convinced me to join you in Florida. Then I would have been able to be with you down there. But stubborn me would not listen and now it's too late to join you down in sunny Florida. Man, I miss you so much. I pray for Bill, BJ, your sisters, and Jessica, for peace and comfort. And I thank you from the bottom of my heart that I was able to be part of your fabulous family. Rest easy my friend.
