“ To Lo, My Precious Friend of 30 years. I am not going to say, Goodbye as we WILL be together again someday. You could NEVER imagine how much I miss you. We talked and laughed and always fun whenever we were together. You were the most intelligent woman I know. On top of being so smart, you were so beautiful inside and out. You taught Olivia and I so much. We will never forget the Starbucks story. There are not enough words for the LOVE I have for you. Rest in peace now as you are with THE LORD and the love of your life, Michael. In My Heart Always, J

“ Tommy, Lola, Esther and I used to go horse back riding in Bergen Beach. Once, we rode on the beach, I split my jeans and lost my sneakers. Lola talked me into riding without my sneakers and they must have fallen off and we couldn't find them. My mom had to come pick me up.

“ I was surprised to hear of my cousin Lola's passing. I hadn't seen or heard from her in many years. She was in such a hurry to grow up back when we used to polish our nails & try on make up as kids. And she was certainly too young to die, just as her brother Tommy was a few years ago. But she's with him now, and hopefully at peace. I do remember a few other things I will never forget about her; and that was her liveliness, spunk, beauty & joie de vivre !!
I want to express many blessings and peaceful wishes for all of Lola's family, loved ones & friends. May she Rest in Peace.

Much love,
Cousin Joanie

“ We knew her as Lola Calicchio, an attractive, stylish, fearless, smart and gutsy gal who was always a unique experience to be around. We (Anna and I) MET at Lola's wedding at the Sheraton Russell Hotel in NYC (38th and Park) in 1971. Anna was close to Lola and I was friendly with Tommy (RIP) from about when we were 8 or 9 (when the Calicchio's came to Sea Gate for the summer). And then there was "Cookie", the baby and of course "Cabby" and "Harry" and Nona.. What fun times we enjoyed together in Sea Gate in that big house on Atlantic Ave.

Anna and I are both honestly and deeply saddened to learn of Lola's passing. We have talked about her often over the years and tried to find her, to no avail-until now.

Our deepest condolences to the Quinlan and Calicchio families (and to sister Caroline) and all who, like us, will miss her and mourn her.

“ Lola,
Whenever I hear "Darlin': " spoken with a soft touch of "sothern"...I will hear your voice. I loved that you were always so feisty and outspoken. Thank you for all the years you spent as my thoughtful and generous neighbor. I will think of you as reunited with Mike, and your puppies Sammy and Boby. I Charlie and I send our condolences to your other friends and family.
Kisses!
