

Samer M Abdel-Wahab

January 17, 1980 - January 30, 2015

Samer Abdel-Wahab, age 35, passed away on Friday, January 30, 2015, after an accident in Jupiter, FL. He leaves behind his wife Heather, and their son Alister. His mother, Mariam, his father, Moustapha, his brother Karim, and his sisters Sarah and Mona also survive him. In addition, he also leaves behind many aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces, nephews, and friends.

Samer was a loving, caring, and honest man. He was a wonderful husband and father. He touched everyone he met with his kindness and sense of humor. He believed that virtue is its own reward, and his quiet generosity was testament to that.

Samer loved his work as an aerospace engineer, and was passionate about solving problems and making a difference in the world. At college and in his career, he said very little about his own accomplishments, but he was proud of his work, and successful due to his diligence and determination. He was an exceptional man in his field, and hoped to make the world a better place by putting his ideas into use.

His family wishes to thank everyone who has been so caring and supportive through this difficult time.

Samer will be remembered on Tuesday, February 3rd, 2015, at Taylor and Modeen Funeral Home, 250 Center Street, Jupiter, FL. Visitation will be from 7 to 8 PM, with a memorial service to follow from 8 to 9 PM. His family will return to Virginia with him for burial.

If family or friends wish to make a memorial donation in Samer's name, we ask that they be sent to Unicef, a charity that he supported.

“ Samer and I were friends and classmate at EL Manar Language School at Alexandria, Egypt during Prep. period and he was a very good friend and he loved the math, honestly he was genius at math. especially geometry.

Samer, you will be missed but don't worry you will always on our minds me and all our friends at EL Manar School.

Rest in Peace my friend.

“ I remember samer as a friend in fifth grade , the most decent polite well behaved sharp quiet student , his 1989 birthday party still seems like it was yesterday . We have not been in touch since then but he is one of those few people that are impossible to forget , while searching for old friends after all those years of life separating us I was shocked with knowing I found him again little too late . May he finds eternal peace and may the Lord has mercy on his soul and bestows patience upon the hearts of his family and friends . No words will reduce your grief as the loss is beyond description but I hope all of those who love him direct that love to his son who by God's will shall continue his legacy and spread the love and compassion that samer excelled at .

“ Samer and I were colleagues in graduate school at Virginia Tech. He was very knowledgeable and hard-working, and he was always willing to share a story and a laugh with the rest of the group. He was a good friend, and I am saddened to hear of his passing. My deepest condolences to Heather, Alister, and the rest of his family.
