“ It has been one full year since Adele's death. My heart still aches, tears bailing out all that suffers the love we have for one who disappeared much too soon from our embrace. If, by chance, wherever you are, Adele, you can receive our love, please do. Your beauty, inside and out, after all, is too much to bear onesided. I, for one, feel as if you are, somehow, near, and, needed or not, know how deeply you are missed and loved. Love you, love you love you.... Jann

“ Dear Adele, Brian and Christina, I'm so sorry for your tragedy, the passing of your bright, bright star, little Dellie, as you used to say! Here's a poem that I love... A butterfly lights among us, and for a brief moment it's beauty belongs for all the world to see. But then it's gone! And tho we wish it could of stayed, We are so grateful for having known it! You are loved! Beth
