Alexander Paul

Alexander Paul, age 96, passed away on Wednesday, April 11, 2012, at Jupiter Medical Center. Alex was born in Worcester, Massachusetts, of immigrant Lithuanian parents, and had a long and successful career working in the shoe industry. In his later working years, he was a principal of TransWorld Shoe Company, traveling extensively in Yugoslavia, Poland, and other countries. After retirement in 1980, he lived in Bonita Springs, Juno Beach and Jupiter. His aim in life was to highly educate his five children, Robert, John, David, Maureen and Tina, all of whom became accomplished professionals in medicine, law, and the arts. He emphasized excellence and performance with humility. His life will be celebrated next week by his extended family at a Memorial Mass in North Brookfield, MA, where he will be interned next to his beloved wife, Margaret Mary Connelly. In lieu of flowers, the Paul family would appreciate donations to Lighthouse for the Blind of the Palm Beaches, 1710 E. Tiffany Drive, West Palm Beach, FL 33407.
