

Alfred Michael Brown

December 27, 1946 - January 28, 2016

Alfred Michael Brown was born December 27th, 1946 in New York during one of the most famous Snow Storms in New York's History. As an Italian New Yorker he grew up on Mulberry Street, attended Power Memorial Academy and went on to Queens College receiving an M.A. in Economics. Al had multiple business adventures including his clothing store The Gordian Knot as well as, a Restaurant and Club "Northern Lights" in Flushing Queens. Al met the love of his life Maureen, "it was love at first sight". After success in New York Al brought his family to Florida in 1994 where he then ventured into Real Estate. Alfred was President of Four Florida Shopping and H.J Brown Properties and up till present time resurrected Orange Blossom Mall to a thriving business hub.

Al was a giant among men. He was a prolific reader there was no subject he did not master. Al Brown is survived by his wife Maureen of 28 years, His loving Daughters Michele and Meaghan, he is also adored by his grandchildren Sienna and Liam. Al gave guidance, kindness and love to all that crossed his path. Al will be remembered for his Sunday dinners where all were welcomed. He lived vicariously through others and lived unselfishly. He was truly the Big Fish. He will be sorely missed by family and many friends. The world lost a great man in a time when we need more like him. You were not great but extraordinary and a legend in the eyes of everyone who knew you... Here's to the greatest man that ever lived, Our Captain Fantastic, Our Big Fish, Loving Husband and utterly devoted Father, Alfred Michael Brown.

“ Dear Brown Family,I recently was informed Al had passed away. I knew something was wrong when the "For Rent" signage on one of his properties was changed. I would let him know of any unsavory activities occurring at the building located across the street from my home. Al was a kind, wonderful person and his wife, Maureen, is as nice as nice can be. My deepest sympathy for your tremendous loss. May your grieving one day lessen, as you keep lifetime memories made, close to your heart. Kindest regards to your children and grandchildren.

“ Al has been my boss for the last few years but more importantly he was my friend. He treated everyone with kindness, love, respect, & made them feel important. He was such a bright light in this world just the way God created him to be. I know he's with our savior now because the bible tells us in John 3:16 "For God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should NOT perish, but have Everlasting Life." May God watch over Maureen, Michelle, Meaghan, Grandkids & the rest of the family especially at this difficult time of bereavement.

“ I'm so sorry to hear of Al's passing. I met Al when my sister worked at the Gordian Knot. He was a great practical joker and a very generous man. I remember spending July 4th celebrating on his boat at LaGuardia Marina; the best sky view for fireworks after the Mets game. I have many great memories of time spent with Al. Rest in peace. Condolences Maureen, Michele and all his friends and family.
