“ Alice was a special person. She was always up beat. She was special in how she handled her sickness. She was going to work one day and stopped to talk I said if you are not feeling well stay home and she said Charlie needs me and if I do not go I am afraid I will never go back. That was just a couple weeks ago. She will be missed.

“ I will never forget Alice and her beautiful smile and disposition. You would never know how she was feeling as she always smiled, no matter. We will miss Alice and her most precious and tender spirit. She surely is resting in the arms of God where pain and sorrow are no more. Fly on eagle's wings dear Alice; I will remember you always!
