“ I am so sorry for your loss. I only knew Andy through our infrequent phone conversations as part of my relationship with Connie Schmitt, my beloved teacher. Any conversations I had with Andy always spoke of His kindness and love for life that I am sure he shared with everyone in his life. I definitely feel the loss for Connie and send my love to him as well as to Andy's family for his all too early passing. Please know I will always think of him with love send him my deepest affection for the kindness he always showed me. Louise Belnay

First, my condolences to the surviving loved ones of Andrew. While I lost touch with Andrew over the years after he moved to Florida, I will never forget him and his kindness and big heart. He was a good friend to me in my younger years and a mentor. I laugh now as he watched me through my young years as I drifted in and out of several relationships with the women in my life until I found the one. I'm sorry that he never got to meet Patricia. She is so much like him...SPECIAL!
Rest in piece my friend.
