Angie Taylor, 88, passed away on Sunday, July 29th, peacefully and with family in Jupiter, FL. Originally from Detroit, Michigan, her father moved the family to Miami Shores in the 1940's where he opened Milone Plastering Company. Frank was a graduate of Miami Tech High School. After the military, Frank reopened A & F Electric Motor Repair, Inc. With Angie at his side they operated this business for more than 25 years. They enjoyed a beautiful life with their five children: Kathy (Jose) Lopez, Rick (Peggy) Taylor, Sheron (Paul) Favata, Marilyn (Casey) Suarez and Mark Taylor. Angie is survived also by her sister Catherine (Paul) Shepard and her brother Frank (Josephine) Milone, sisters-in-law Marylou Milone and Sandra Milone, many nieces and nephews, cousins and extended family including many dear friends.

Angie was a gentle soul who reminded us always that she was blessed. She was a beautiful wife, mother, grandmother and great grandmother who cooked for the crowds of family that gathered at her home. She loved freely and enjoyed life to the fullest. Her presence will be missed but her legacy survives through all of those who loved her.
