“ Angie and I worked together for many years as DA and RDH for Dr. C. Richard Malt where she mentored me as a young dental hygienist. She was the most amazing, skilled DA you could ever meet and loved delivering fine dentistry to her patients that became her friends. She and her husband, George, and I often enjoyed catfish dinners on Friday nights at Johnson's. She was the first of my friends to hold my tiny daughter Jaimie almost 31 years ago. We shared a special friendship that I will never forget. She loved telling stories about her boys growing up becoming men. She was a beautifully put together woman who took pride in her appearances. Now I learn of her courageous struggle and how she took care of herself as long as she could. She was amazing! I love you, Angie. Best wishes to her family, especially Michael, who I knew, too.
