“ Ann was such a HUGE part of all the Grogan's lives! She was like a Mother to me. So many happy memories of her helping me and laughing with me as I grew up! I know my whole family loved her! I am so sorry for your loss. I will never forget her... God keep you safe for eternal life!

“ It is difficult to believe that Ann has passed away. Our friendship goes back to the Inlet Court on Singer Island where our parents were the closest of friends. Ann was five years older than I and I was the barefooted teenager who looked up to her as one of my "senior friends". We lived in Lake Park and I rode my bicycle over the bumpy wooden bridge every day for fun at the later Colonnades pool, swimming with Jack Iler, the iconic diving and swimming instructor, and later working as a beach life guard for her father, Mr. Poindexter, who was the hotel manager. Our lives sort of revolved around the Poindexters, her mother's terrific ukelele playing and I learning how to act like a gentleman around adults. My sister, Kaye, and Ann's younger sister, Fair, were the closest of friends. I can't avoid telling how they, at ages twelve, "stole" my parent's car for for a fun filled drive around Singer Island. I hope Ann spreads as much good cheer in heaven and makes as many new friends. I hope she takes the baritone ukelele with her.

“ My deepest sympathy to John, Holly, Nancy and their families in the loss of their Mom. Ann was the sweetest, kindest, and best Aunt ever! I will miss her so much!
