

Anne Billinghamurst Randolph

July 20, 1941 - April 16, 2018

Anne Randolph passed away on April 16th at the age of 76 years. Anne was a resident at Jupiter Gardens and had lived in Florida for 50 years.

Anne was born in Macon, Georgia and was the beloved only child of Dr. George Billinghamurst and Mrs. Mattie Billinghamurst. She grew up in Columbia, South Carolina and played classical piano. She was an avid lover of animals of both land and sea. She attended the University of Georgia and earned her Bachelor's degree from Mercer University. She played the role of "Miss Anne" on the 1960's Children's Television series "Romper Room" and wrote as a social columnist for the Palm Beach Post before leaving her profession to start a family. She was in all accounts the definition of a fine southern woman and generous in both kindness and spirit.

Her greatest role was that of mother and grandmother. She is survived by her daughter Georgeanna "Lee" Randolph Bochenek (husband Jeff) and 2 grandsons, Jake Edward (15) and Chase Randolph (12) of Potomac Falls, VA and son Robert Jerry Randolph IV (wife Janis) 2 granddaughters Mia (9) and Addison Anne (4) of Jupiter, FL. In lieu of flowers, the family is requesting donations be made in her honor to the House of Refuge.
