

Anthony Dale George

May 20, 2025

Anthony Dale George passed away on May 20, 2025 at age 84. Born in West Palm Beach, Dale was a lifelong resident of Palm Beach County. He worked at Pratt & Whitney before becoming a New York Life insurance agent and then creating his own agency, A Dale George Financial Designs. In his leisure time, Dale enjoyed playing cards, bowling, dancing, snow skiing, scuba diving, fishing and boating, especially in the Bahamas where he would search and search for the right place to dive for lobster. He became a member of St. Mark's Episcopal Church after marrying Paula Barnum. Dale was very involved in church life; serving on the vestry, participating on the Kairos and Cursillo teams along with organizing St. Mark's participation in St. George's Table. Dale is survived by two sons, Anthony D. George, Jr. (wife Deby) and Darryl George (wife Shelly); two stepsons, Patrick Barnum (wife Allison) and Michael Barnum (wife Jennifer) and stepdaughter Chris Conn; 15 grandchildren; brother Jim George (wife

Afife) and many nieces and nephews.
