Dear Ashley, I am so sorry to hear of your death. I pray you are with Jesus, fully experiencing the unfathomable love God has always had and always will have for you, at peace in His arms with your heart filled with an unfathomable joy.

Kris, Heather and all family members - I am SO very sorry for your loss. After knowing Ashley a little when she was younger we caught up with each other on Facebook about a year ago. I was struck by how much she loved her son Dalton and her daughter Nicole, love that was consistently reflected in her FB posts. I can hardly believe she is gone. May the peace of Christ which passes all understanding be with you now as you grieve the loss of this beautiful young woman.

God bless you all.

“ Ashley, you will forever be missed!! We haven't talked in months but that never stopped me from thinking about you and how you were doing. From the first day I met you, you left an impact on me that a lot of people don't do. You always knew how to make me laugh when things weren't always great and could always light up a room with laughter. You will truly be missed! Watch over those beautiful kids of urs as u would if u were still here. When I heard about this I couldn't even grasp that it was true and it's still hard for me to believe it. Thanks for the memories we did share and know they will never be forgotten. I still think about the day u came to my house while u were pregnant with Dalton and wanted me to paint ur belly as an Easter egg....I'm glad that I could do that for you!! Fly high angel!!! You will forever be missed but never forgotten!! So much more I could say about you but jut trying to keep it short and simple. Love you and miss you!!
