“ Audrey was not only my sister, but my best friend. We shared so many happy times together and talked for hours every Monday morning, sharing stories, talking about new books and movies, family happenings, and just silly laughing at little things together. She was 11 years older than I, always loving, and as a young girl, was a model for me as to what a woman should be. What a gift to have "Aud" as my sister! Memories of her will live in each of us who knew and loved her.
