I remember the fun times we had on our boat when we went tubing and fell off because we were going so fast and jumped the waves. And when we rented a boat here in FL and played at the sand bar !! What fun that was to have all the kiddos and your sisters and mommom. We never wanted the days to end. Miss your fun company ♡♡♡♡♡

Britnis light still shines out at sea right under the star she is directly below, a small light shining, looks like an angel is flying right over her.
