

Camilla Rose Merendino

November 22, 1965 - November 18, 2021

Camilla Rose Merendino (nee Rahill) was born on November 22nd, 1965 in Westmount, QC, Canada to Kerry and Barbara Rahill. Known as “Cammy” to her friends and family, she moved to the United States as a child and lived in Hollywood, Florida with her father and siblings after the early passing of her mother. After falling in love with her husband of 27 years Joseph Anthony Merendino, the couple settled in Jupiter, Florida, where they lived for the past 25 years and raised their two children. After an accidental fall in her family home in March 2021, asymptomatic Stage 3B Lung Cancer was found by the ICU doctors, which quickly progressed to Stage 4 and travelled throughout her body. Always the fighter, she lived her life with action, purpose, and optimism, and was able to pass with her family around her only a few short days before her birthday. She is survived by her loving husband Joseph Anthony, her daughter Barbara, and her son Joseph Nicholas, as well as her father Kerry Rahill and her siblings Misty, April, Starlene, and Patrick. The love her family and friends have for her will be eternal, and her memory will be everlasting.

A service to celebrate her life will be held at 2:00 PM Sunday, December 5th at Taylor and Modeen Funeral Home, 250 Center St., Jupiter, FL 33458. Her ashes will be spread in the ocean to travel the world as well as to rest with her mother in Canada.
