“ Cousin Carmen has always been a figure larger than life to me, spirited, fun-loving and ever gracious. She and Cousin Manuel remain a treasured part of my growing up--the exotic familia who drove up to NY from Florida and loved Greek diners; the caretakers of creative poodles; the generous hosts to Northern kin who traveled South on occasion. I remember with great fondness her trip to Washington, DC with Aunt Connie--lots of fun--and memorable crab cakes. A grand and glorious prima indeed, I will miss her.

I pray in solidarity with Cousin Carmen's children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren, loved ones and friends. May you find comfort in your memories, be strengthened by the support of friends and family, find joy in her life well-lived, and take hope in the promise of that day when there will be no more tears and all will be together again. May the angels and her beloved Manuel welcome her home to the company God y los santos y las santas.

Abrazos fuertes.
