

Carol Lee Campi

January 4, 1941 - January 13, 2020

Carol Lee Campi (Painter), 79, passed away peacefully in her sleep on January 13, 2020.

Carol was born January 4, 1941 in Dumont, New Jersey to the late Wellwood and Ruth Painter. Carol was married to her high school sweetheart, John Campi in 1962 and had spent an adventurous lifetime together.

In 1958, Carol was chosen as the first Exchange Student to go abroad from her hometown. She graduated from Dumont High School in 1959. She received a Bachelor of Arts degree from St. Peters College, a MBA from University of Hartford, and studied for a Masters of Divinity at Drew University. She worked at the Bergen Record, founded the Dumont Mental Health Center, assisted as an EMT in Old Tappan, New Jersey and led as a Managing Director of Chatham Consulting Group. She was an Elder in the Presbyterian Church, and active in many congregations throughout her life. Carol also was a member of Jonathans Landing in Jupiter, Florida for 30 years, enjoyed playing golf and led their spirited book club.

Carol was bright, with a wonderful sense of humor, an infectious smile and a beautiful singing voice.

She enjoyed spending time with family, friends, and her dog Pippa. Carol is survived by her devoted husband, John; two children, Jon (Audrie) Campi and Christen Lee (James) Governale; sister, Joyce (Howard) Felsenfeld; three blessed grandchildren, Evelina Lee, Anna Lee, and Jack; and many nieces, nephews, cousins and friends, all of whom she considered her beloved family.

“ I met Carol at the Bergen Record in the late 1950's and have been friends ever since. Although we have been geographically separated ,we continued sharing many happy times together . I will forever remember her captivating smile and her warmth. Carol leaves many loving friends who cherish her . I, for one, miss her with a heavy heart.

My love and prayers go out to John and the Campi family at this sorrowful time.

John, you and Carol lived a lifetime of love and happiness. God , who she loved so very much , will give you strength to carry on at this sorrowful time.
