

Chandler Holroyd

April 5, 2026

Chandler Holroyd, 28, of Jupiter, Florida, passed away on April 5, 2026, following a tragic accidental fall.

Chandler lived life fully and fearlessly, with a deep love for adventure and family. He grew up in Jupiter and was known throughout the community for his warm personality, easy smile, and the way he made everyone feel like a friend. Whether on the slopes during family ski trips or exploring the ocean on boating adventures, Chandler was happiest when he was with the people he loved.

He shared a special bond with his family, creating lifelong memories through travel, laughter, and time spent together. Those trips skiing in the mountains and boating in clear blue waters were some of his most cherished moments and a reflection of the life he embraced with passion.

Chandler was a loyal friend and a familiar face to so many. His kindness, sense of humor, and positive nature left a lasting impression on everyone he met. He will be remembered for his adventurous spirit, his love of life, and the deep connections he formed with those around him.

He is survived by his loving parents, Jesse and Michelle, his sister Jessica, his brother in law Andrew, his niece Mila and nephew Aiden, his cherished family in the Ushers, Lurveys, Holzknechts, Ballards, and many more extended family members and close friends who will carry his memory forward.

A service and celebration of Chandler's life will be held on April 20th from 3 - 6pm at The Cove Club in West Palm Beach. All who knew and loved Chandler and his family are welcome to attend. Parking is limited; guests are encouraged to carpool or use ride sharing services.

For those wishing to send flowers, they may be delivered to: 110 Cape Pointe Circle Jupiter, FL 33477
