August 8, 1946 - April 28, 2022

Charlie's Obituary

Charles Joseph Battista, 75 passed away at his sister's home in Jupiter, Florida on April 18, 2022.

Charles, better known to friends and family as Charlie was born in New Haven, Connecticut August 8, 1946 to Charles and Ann Battista of North Haven, Connecticut. Charlie graduated from North Haven High School and Milford Academy before being drafted during the Vietnamese war and served returning military at Madigan General Hospital in the State of Washington. Charlie loved Washington and made it his home for a major part of his life.

While in Washington, Charlie enjoyed the outdoors with hunting, fishing, scuba diving, backpacking and camping to name a few. He was co-owner of a major house and commercial construction company.

Charlie was a great friend and loved by many, both in Washington and Florida.

Returning to Connecticut Charlie spent his life with the "love" of his life, Marianne Daly and her children Andrew (his son Drake) and Carolyn (her son Trenton) in Melbourne, Florida.

For more than 25 years Charlie gained recognition as a fair and honest softball umpire for Girls slow pitch, both college and high school.

Charlie is survived by his sister, Roberta B. Battis of Jupiter, Florida, his nephew Brian J. Battis (Sheryl) also of Jupiter Florida. He was pre deceased by his parents Charles and Ann Battista.

“ So so sad to hear this news of Charlie's passing. As a former NHHS classmate, I remember Charlie as being a handsome, athletic, friendly lad who loved to have fun. After all these years I remember that he wrote in my yearbook that we would see each other at summer parties. May you rest in peace, Charlie Joyce
