

Charles Victor Carpenter

November 5, 1941 - September 25, 2025

Charles V. Carpenter, born on November 5, 1941, in Rivesville, West Virginia, was called to his eternal home on September 25, 2025 in Jupiter, FL. He was the son of Dora Mae and James Carpenter.

Vic, as he was affectionately known, was a force of nature, with extraordinary wit and humor, and was a shining light to those who had the privilege to know him. His journey on earth was marked by a fierce love for his family, especially his wife, Liz, who was the love of his life. They spent 63 wonderful years together, laughing, raising a family, traveling, and giving each other absolute hell. Neither of them would have wanted it any other way. Vic was a self-made man, with a truly impressive entrepreneurial spirit, and he will be sorely missed by many.

He is survived by his wife, Elizabeth, his daughters Vicci Collins, Lori (John) Frederick, Tracy (Clint) Sutton, grandchildren Cole (Madeline) Frederick, Lauren Frederick, Jake (Kaeley) Brown, and Sydney Brown. We ask that you remember him not for how his life ended, but for the way it was lived, and the profound impact it had on the lives of those who knew him. In lieu of flowers, donations in his name can be made to the American Lung Association <https://action.lung.org> or the Salvation Army. A Celebration of Life will be held in Vic's honor at a later date.

Vic was a great man. We had much fun together playing the card game 31, golf, and just out with friends to eat and have a few cocktails. He will be missed by many but most of all by me. Love you man. Joe Makowski

“ If you can't be good, can't be good, be good at it” is what he told me a million times before Tracy and I would eventually sneak off somewhere. The man knew. He also did. 😭
God bless your soul and rest easy Vic. See you again.

Yes, he did. Then he'd slip you a little cash, "just in case". (don't tell your mom) All he wanted to know was which direction we were all headed in case something happened. He was amazing. He was a girl's dad, and every one of our girlfriends was considered an honorary daughter. We love you, Heather. You're the 4th Carpenter daughter.
