“ Charlie was the consummate showman, always charming and ready with a song or story. His career was remarkable, and we will miss his dapper style. He was a real gentleman, and I would tell him he was the energizer bunny. He and Mary were such a wonderful couple, and we will never forget how Charlie lit up a room. They'll never be another Charlie.

“ I will always remember Uncle Charlie as the "guest singer at our weddings". He always got up and sang us a song. When we were younger, I remember him taking us to parties in the city and also the Ringling Brothers Circus. I am sure Mom, Aunt Rose and Chuckie were waiting for him when he left us.

Keep them entertained Uncle Charlie, rest in peace.

“ I have great memories of my Uncle Charlie, he was always telling us jokes and sang at parties and our weddings, expecially "Danny Boy" and Tie a Yellow Ribbon Around the Old Oak Tree", he will be greatly missed by all of us, especially his loving Mary who took care of him all these years.

I am sure that all of the family welcomed him with open arms in Heaven.
