

Charles Andrew Kyme

December 5, 2024

Charles Andrew Kyme, 85, of Lake Worth, Florida and formerly of Long Island, New York, died on December 5, 2024 in Atlantis, Florida. Born in Flatbush, Brooklyn, NY, he was a devout member of St. Thomas Aquinas Roman Catholic Church and School, St. John's Preparatory School, and graduated from Pace University in New York. He served in the U.S. Army and was stationed in Korea. He is retired from Exxon Oil Company, having worked in their Traffic Department, scheduling oil tankers around the world, and traveling in the Mideast. He later worked as a tax accountant and property manager. Chuck was a lifelong golfer, with a +2 handicap, and kept up the game as long as he was able. He was a movie-lover, amassing a collection that rivaled the Library of Congress. A great lover of sports, he fanatically followed the Giants, Yankees, Knicks, and the Florida Gators. Chuck was also a social butterfly and could often be found perched at the Banana Boat in Boynton Beach, FL, sipping on a Bay Breeze.

A Loving father of Kimberly McKenzie, Heather Garabrant, and Matthew Kyme; and loving grandfather of Christine Phelan, Amara Rodriguez, and John Garabrant; and dear friend and former spouse of, Lucille Lanpher. He was predeceased by his parents, Charles Leroy Kyme and Josephine Monahan Kyme, and his sister, Mary Kyme Perretta. A viewing will take place at McManus Funeral Home in Brooklyn at 8:30 AM on Wednesday, December 18, 2024. Graveside services will follow at First Calvary Cemetery in Woodside, New York.

...

Tribute Wall

LL

“ 1 file added to the tribute wall

Lucille Lanpher - December 17, 2024 at 10:04 PM

LL

“ 1 file added to the tribute wall

Lucille Lanpher - December 17, 2024 at 09:57 PM

LL

“ 1 file added to the album Family photos

Lucille Lanpher - December 12, 2024 at 12:53 AM

LL

“ 1 file added to the album Chuck's 80th birthday

Lucille Lanpher - December 11, 2024 at 12:08 PM

LL

Jim and I enjoyed Chuck's 80th birthday party.

Lucille Lanpher - December 11, 2024 at 12:27 PM