

Charles V. Wrobel

May 22, 1918 - December 16, 2012

Wrobel, Charles V.

Age 94, of Tequesta passed away peacefully on December 16th after a period of declining health. He was born on May 22, 1918 in Chicago, Illinois. After many years of starting and building a successful manufacturing business in Franklin Park, Illinois, he retired to Florida where he enjoyed being an avid golfer. He was one of the founding members of Turtle Creek Club in Tequesta where he made many lasting friendships. Charles is now joyfully reunited with his two sons, Gerald and Christopher, who predeceased him. He is survived by his loving and devoted wife of 72 years, Virginia; a daughter, Joanne Russell of Tequesta; three grandsons, Greg Wrobel (wife, Candace) of Sarasota; James Russell (wife, Danielle) of Port St. Lucie; and Jason Russell (wife, Lara) of Taylors, SC. He also leaves behind 6 great grandchildren and 2 great great grandchildren. For those who knew and loved him, family members will hold a memorial service and celebration of his life at Turtle Creek Club on January 9th at 2 P.M. In lieu of flowers donations may be made to Jupiter Medical Center.

“ I am sadden to learn of Mr. Wrobel's passing. I remember him as a kind man with a generous heart and a great sense of humor. I have fond memories of my time in Florida with my parents Russ & Bea Moore. Wrobel/Colmar/Rodivich/Moore made for a big group and some wonderful memories. I also keep dear my time with his son Chris, we pretty much grew up like siblings spending our school breaks in Florida and fishing on my dad's boat. Those experiences are part of a rich tapestry, which has made me the person I am today. I hope your family can take comfort in the memories you have of him. My thoughts and prayers are with you.
