“ Just found this tribute , Ken and I are sooo saddened - we first held dearest Chermaine in our arms in June, 1970 on our honeymoon trip to England where Ken and Jeff and Wend reconnected from school days - even at that tender age Chermaine's big blue eyes and infectious smile abd chuckle won our hearts - we enjoyed subsequent family visits to Canada and although miles apart - were in our hearts - hugs to all, heaven has just gained a beautiful angel - Roz & Ken

“ Beautiful glowing blue eyes, , vivacious smile and your unique voice will be forever ingrained in my memory. Our paths intertwined between work and the kids. Through my own son, knowing your daughter Hailey and how she adored you. Hearing it from your oldest son Craig, how much he loved you. Your youngest son Sean playing his Nintendo 3DS and beaming that you got it for him! Then a close friend of yours (RT) doing something for you that touched my heart and brought tears to my eyes. Seeing your reaction was priceless and a private moment I was able to share with you. These are the few moments I shared with you, a few, but ones that will be with me forever. Kimberly

“ To the family of Chermaine, my heart is breaking for your loss. I've known Chermaine since my daughter and her middle school days.. She was a BEAUTIFUL girl, a bit shy at first, with the lovely English accent. I just gave her a f.b friend request last weekend. Wondering and thinking of her often!! I put something on my f.b page about her as well.. I pray for your strength and understanding of why these things happen to us! Its been over two years since my son's passing from the same dreadful disease.. I know you all have a long journey ahead. I asked my son in prayer to please hold hands with Chermaine and remain at her side. She was and still is a beautiful soul to live on forever with our Lord Jesus Christ. Blessings, peace and love to you all.. astrid mazzarella.. p.s I'm just a phone call away 954 68391386,,, “ Why does bad things happen to good people?

It raises an opportunity for us not in the storm to embrace those good people going through the storm.
These hard times also gives good people timber to build their mansion in eternity. Good people like you (Mike and family) will show us how to handle adversity. For each of us will pass this way at some time.
Mike, I thank you for being the friend that you are. You are the guy that would reach out a hand to help, even if you had your own list.
As your friends we stand with you now.... We pray with/for you now.
We celebrate with you now Chermaine's arrival at our shared destination. And embrace those words now to be spoken..... "Job well done my good and faithful servant, welcome to a pain-free eternity"

Peace,
