“ You had such troubles in life but your face always had a smile. I was very saddened to hear of your passing. It was always nice to see you pop into our office to say hello. I will miss talking with you during the tax seasons.

“ Lord, those who die still live in Your presence, their lives change but do not end. I pray in hope for the family, relatives and friends, and for all the dead known to You alone.

I hope you thought of me as a kind listener and a gentle voice. I only learned of your death recently and am without words. Rest in peace, Cynthia.

“ Cynthia, in the short time that I knew you, you taught me how your strength and perseverance kept you going, and how each of us is just one tragedy away from homelessness. Your smile did not show the pain that you endured every day. May God Bless you and envelop you with His loving arms.
