

Daniel Stanley Frank

July 5, 1949 - January 23, 2024

It is with great sorrow that we announce the passing of a beloved husband, father, pappy, brother, uncle and friend, Daniel "Danny" Frank, who left us peacefully on January 23, 2024.

Born on July 5, 1949, Daniel was a force of nature known for his dynamic personable charm, unfiltered humor, and heartwarming generosity. Always the life of the party, he was outgoing and family-oriented. Daniel was a man who believed in not taking life too seriously, his mantra being "Don't take anything too seriously" and the one we will always live by "take what you want, eat what you take."

Daniel was a proud Marine who served in Vietnam and cherished being a son, brother, uncle, father, and "pappy". His legacy is one of generosity and patriotism, tied together with the golden thread of unity. He was known for always checking in on others, problem solving, and creating an atmosphere of joy and laughter. He took pride in being everyone's number one fan, no matter what the circumstance was.

He is survived by his loving wife, Agnes Frank, who was his pillar of strength throughout his life. He leaves behind his caring daughters, Angela Gutierrez and her husband Joshua Gutierrez, and his dutiful daughter-in-law, Kathleen Frank. His pride and happiness lay in his grandchildren, Isabella Gutierrez, Giada Gutierrez, Dane Ventura, and Braden Ventura, who will miss their grandfather's amusing stories and playful spirit.

Daniel is also survived by his sister, Bernie Bitzelberger and his brother, Les Frank, who fondly remember their brother's jovial nature. He also leaves behind his brother-in-law, Ralph Giordano; his sisters-in-law, Ellen Giordano and Lana Frank; his nephews, Greg Giordano, Matthew Bitzelberger, Jeff Frank, Randy Frank, Kevin Frank, and Chesty Frank; and, his nieces, Meredith Giordano, Elizabeth Donahue, Melissa Frank, and Tracey Frank.

His brother, Luis Frank, and his sister, Anionette Frank, predeceased him and now welcome him into eternal rest. In heaven, his son Daniel Frank, whom we recently lost, will be waiting for him with open arms.

The world is a lesser place without Daniel's vibrant personality, but his light will continue to shine through the family and friends he leaves behind. His life was a living testament to the power of love, joy, and generosity - values that will carry on in the hearts of those he touched.

A Visitation will be held at Taylor & Modeen Funeral Home, in Jupiter, FL on Tuesday January 30th, from 11am-1pm. A Funeral Mass at St. Christopher Catholic Church, in Hobe Sound, FL will directly follow, at 2:00pm.

“ Mr Frank... oh how you shaped my childhood. Best dad ever. The many Steelers games, best times ever were at away games. You obviously shaped your children and grandchildren into the amazing person you are. Oh, Mrs Frank, you have no idea what a wonderful wife and supportive person that I have admired my whole life. I can't imagine your unbearable grief losing your son and husband, love you. Only tiny bit of relief is they are together watching super bowl. Xoxo

Gail and I met Dan four years ago when we moved in next door to Dan and Agnes. We were so lucky to have them as neighbors. Although we only knew him for a short time, he felt like an old friend. He was more full of life than 10 ordinary people. We will miss him every day. It's hard to imagine the neighborhood without him.*

“ Danny was a great guy. He would do just about anything to help others and was an inspiration to all. He was the first to volunteer to help with anything around the community that needed fixing and went out of his way to participate in the ACC and the HOA Board. I loved talking with him as he would stop by while traveling around the neighborhood with his dog. I will greatly miss our visits.

“ Dan was part of our multi cousin family that visited their grandmother weekly. In the process he was always kind and helpful to my mother (his Aunt Aggie)
Remember like yesterday his visit to us in Detroit for Steeler Super Bowl. RIP

“Maryann, Stephen, Kristin and I are very sorry over Dan's passing. I remember when Dan worked at a gas station in his home town. We lost contact when he went to Nam. How surprised I was when years later, we ran into each other leaving church one day in Harrison City. We rekindled an active friendship with our sons and their involvement in Scouts achieving their Eagle to the point in helping him and Aggie pack up to move to Florida. This continued through many calls and conversations that we had over the years. Dan was a great person and will be sorely missed.”

“ I was so sad to hear of Danny's passing. He was such a kind and generous man, who would give you anything and everything without hesitation. The last time I visited his home, Danny would not let me leave without taking fruit from the citrus tree in his backyard and money so that my husband and I could have a dinner date on him. That's just the kind of man he was - he found real joy in other people's happiness.

Danny also had an amazing sense of humor and a strong and abiding faith, both of which seemed to keep him in good spirits no matter what difficulties he encountered. He enjoyed all the good life had to offer and just took the challenges in stride.

My family first got to know Danny through Danny, Jr., who was so much like his namesake. We take comfort in knowing that the two Dannels are now reunited and watching over their loved ones from above.

I am so grateful to Danny and Agnes for providing loyal and loving friendship to my parents for so many years. For that, alone, I they are continually in my prayers. My best to all who mourn, including Dan's beloved pup, Winnie. We love you, Danny. 💕

I knew Dan when he lived here in Harrison City, PA. We became friends through our work with the Jeannette Auxiliary Police Department as well as the Westmoreland County Sheriff's Reserve Department.

Dan was a very likable, kind and generous man. He would do anything he could for you, and always had a smile on his face. May he rest in peace.
