

Daniel A. Gladwin

April 12, 2021

Obituary to Follow. Daniel "Dan" Gladwin was a long time Jupiter resident and a friend to many. He spent over 40 years as a general contractor and was a deeply devoted family man. There are no words to adequately express how deeply he will be missed. The family has requested that those unable to attend please leave condolences on the website. They are looking forward to hearing from his friends and colleagues. The gathering at the funeral home will be brief. Due to the family's fragile state we ask that those who attend move through quickly so others are able to pass through as well.

“ Although Dan, Brenda and I met only a few times we were blessed to become a family in March when their son, Guy, and my daughter, Kelly, were married. What a beautiful day at was. I prayed that we would all share many more happy times. Unfortunately, Dan had come to the end of his fight. I know that Dan now has the Best Seat in the House and will watch over his family. I feel very blessed to have crossed paths in our life journey. God speed, Dan...rest easy,,,you have more than earned it. With love..

“ I have known Dan mostly through FB, we did cross paths years ago,, but it was his words of wit and wisdom he posted that made so many of our mornings brighter. We will miss that, but know after the long and brave fight he had fought, he will now be able to rest pain free. Sending more hugs .

Although Dan and his wife Brenda and I only met a few times, we were blessed to come together as a family in March when their son, Guy, and my daughter, Kelly, were married. What a beautiful day it was. I prayed we would all have more time together, but Dan was ready. Now he has the Best Seat in the House and I know he will be watching over this family. Rest easy,Dan,...till we meet again. God speed. Much love, Linda.
