“ I had and will always have the upmost respect for Mr. Strader. I was in high school when I worked for Publix and he taught me so much. I have shared many stories about him and my experiences working with him. I just spoke about him today, which made me curious about him. It saddens me. I had always hoped to get in touch with him and Thank him for being a great mentor and intrusting me with so much responsibilities as young as I was. He was tuff but good hearted. RIP!

“ Debby and family-
I'm so sorry to hear about your loss. David was a sweet and kind person who taught me the bakery business. We both left Publix around the same time and fell out of touch when I moved out of Juno Isles. He will be missed and will be watching over. I'm just shocked and wish I knew earlier. My prayers go to you all.

“ Dearest Debbie,

It was so nice speaking with you today. As I mentioned that I have been out of town and a week behind in reading my mail...please forgive me. I was in AHH...when I read your e-mail..... Oh gosh, you, David and I go back so far.....I can remember the day you, Amy and Matthew walked into N.P.B. The kids starting school and you working along beside me....Those were the Good Old Days..... David and I always made with the jokes and he never of course knew what was coming out of my mouth next:) Gosh Debbie, it feels like only yesterday.....that we ALL were together....MEMORIES.....MEMORIES...

“ Dad I have so many memories... Our family trips, (which you and Mom always allowed our friends to attend) Publix, when you took me and Matt to work with you, while you did your thing we made cookies. But my most favorite and most recent memories are the gardening ones. I loved that we gave each other food bearing plants and then talked daily about which plant was doing the best, which plant needed the most care, which one gave us the most produce... Dad I expect you to be an angle by my side while I continue to garden! I promise to take care of the plants that meant so much to you. I love you so much, I'll see you soon... Amy

“ Dearest Debby,

I wish I could have known your David. From all I've read I know I would have liked him. After all, he married you, and you're a special lady.

You have borne his illness for a long time but you have done so with dignity,loyalty, and God's everlasting love shining through.I'm sure you've had many dark times that perhaps you've only shared with the Lord but He will reward your faithfulness.

He promises to never leave us or forsake us. May you and your wonderful family rest on His promise.

*In His Love,,

Mr. Strader made sure that baked goods were top notched on his watch. He was a tough but fair leader, we went to lunch many times. Sincere condolences to his family and friends
