“ *Delone Rae's father and my father were 1st cousins. We kept in touch over the years at Christmas time. We were always going to get together - -
In December 2013 she wrote to me about her cruise to the Scandinavian countries. Her grandfather. Eric and my grandfather, John were brothers and were born in Sweden so I imagine she enjoyed visiting that area. And then she wrote of her illnesses when she returned - I'm so sorry about her death.*
