

Denise Scott Davis

July 13, 1956 - April 7, 2026

Denise Scott Davis, 69, of Jupiter, Florida, took Jesus's hand and passed away peacefully, surrounded by her family, on April 7, 2026.

She was born in Grand Rapids, Michigan, to Marcia Carlson and Ramon Gerbert, and went on to graduate from Syracuse University, where she was recognized on the Dean's List.

A devoted wife, mother, and grandmother, she shared 46 loving years of marriage with her husband, Richard Davis. She was the loving mother of Ramon Davis and Richard Davis II, and a proud and devoted grandmother whose grandchildren were truly the joy of her life.

She is survived by her husband, Richard Davis; her sons, Ramon and Richard; her beloved grandchildren; her stepmother, Elaine Gerbert; her siblings, Jilliane Scott, Kathryn Scott, Kelly Sangrey, Stacy Scott Porter, and Mark Scott; and numerous nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her mother, Marcia Ostrander; her father, Ramon Gerbert; her sister, Andrea Scott McGeary; and her brother, Charles Gerbert.

She had a deep and abiding faith and was actively involved with St. Mark's Episcopal Church, where she taught Sunday School for 37 years and was a proud member of the Daughters of the King. She especially cherished her time working with the children of the church, whom she loved dearly.

She will be remembered for her warmth, her strong sense of humor, and her many talents, including her accomplished piano playing and her dedication to earning a black belt in karate. Above all, she will be remembered for the love she gave so freely to her family and community.
