Dear Family, there is nothing that I can really write or say that will make up for the tremendous loss of a mother, a sister, a friend or a companion. My recollection of Donna is that she always had a beautiful smile on her face and always welcomed me into her home as if she had known me for many many years. I grieve her loss not as a family member, but as a person who always welcomed me with open arms. Thank you Donna, and may God Bless.

“ Dear family of Donna, first my deepest condolences on this enormous loss. Where do I begin with my memories of her, there are so many , all tumbling in my mind , trying to get there first.

I first noticed her beautiful hair when we met, grey like mine bonded us forever as the mothers in law as our children became engaged to each other. No one can choose the family your children marry into but I certainly hit the jackpot with the Feeley's. Warm, open, funny and Irish , what more could anyone want and at the head of the clan sat Donna, smiling in joy and being the loving mom to them all

She was always there, helping, baking, fixing cooking or cleaning and not to forget gardening.

We became close, we became grandmothers, we both were that already but we got them together fo share, what joy!

I can still see Donna's face when she first saw the sonogram picture of Cash when his birth was going to be announced.

Donna was so true in the sense that what you see is what you got! No pretending ever, just a warm smile and an invitation for dinner!

Through the years we stayed close, when they moved to SC, it was a sad day and I missed Donna and himself as she called him a lot.

I had never heard the expression “ himself” before about the head of an Irish family so when Donna talked about that one night, referring numerous times to himself, I had no clue who she was talking about but she seemed to think I knew this person.

We had a good laugh over that later.

And so the years passed by and with it the memories I always treasure.

Donna, you left quietly as though you didn't want to disturb anyone. As in life, you didn't want to make a fuss and then left my life almost as quiet as how you entered it!

Thank you for your unconditional support and love, the highlights of our time on earth together are written in my Heart ❤️
