“ When I was growing in Agawam, MA my best friend in the world (and still is) was Tommy Guimond, Dody's son. I was either at his house or he at mine since we were 5 years old. Dody treated me like family and I considered her a second mom. In truth I loved her dearly; she was one of the most good natured, caring people that I have ever run across in my 50 years. Just prior to High school, the Guimonds announced that they were moving to Florida upon Frank's transfer/promotion at Pratt & Whitney. Dody, saw how devastated that I was and put her arm around me and said "Don't worry Charlie, you can come down and visit Tommy any time you want". She meant it and it genuinely made me feel better. Over the years the Christmas cards were traded, ours always had pictures of the kids growing up and theirs always had a nice comment from Dody about how big the kids were getting or how pretty, etc.; it was a small thing that I looked forward to every year. I will miss her.

“ *Death, be not proud, though some have called thee
Mighty and dreadful, for thou art not so;
For those whom thou think'st thou dost overthrow,
Die not, poor Death, nor yet canst thou kill me.
From rest and sleep, which but thy pictures be,
Much pleasure; then from thee much more must flow,
And soonest our best men with thee do go,
Rest of their bones, and soul's delivery.
Thou art slave to fate, chance, kings, and desperate men,
And dost with poison, war, and sickness dwell;
And poppy or charms can make us sleep as well
And better than thy stroke; why swell'st thou then?
One short sleep past, we wake eternally,
And death shall be no more; Death, thou shalt die.*

John Donne, 1572-1631

Our most sincere condolences to the family.
