“ Suzie and I went to the "Senior Prom" in 1965. We've remained friends ever since. We were blessed to have reconnected a few years ago via email and shared many memories. Suzie had the warmest and biggest heart. I will always love her. Suzie is pain free now and rejoicing in Heaven with our Lord and Savior! I know she will be waiting and stand beside me before the Lord when I arrive in Heaven. Thank you Suzie for your love and friendship. May God Bless you always! Charlie

“ What a ray of sunshine, our precious Sue. A true friend who shared her bravery, her heart and tribulations with grace and honor. Although I will miss our times together, I know that you have now found true peace in the house of our Lord. No more suffering for you Sue, just peace and the love you carry with you. Hugs to you forever, Diane

“ My prayers to the family at this time of sorrow. I shared many laughs and had a warm friendship with Sue, who I called "Suzie Sunshine" . We worked together for 11 years. She taught me a lot about commissions and was a wonderful mentor. She was a friend to all who knew her. She was an inspiration and fought this cancer with grace and the brave spirit of a warrior. Im so happy she is at peace now with her Lord and Savior. She will be missed.
