“ My thoughts and prayers go out to all the family and friends. I did not know Edith, but knew her brother Richard "Rich" working together years ago at several restaurants in Jupiter....a good friend. Rich, I am so sorry for your loss, I hope you have been well over the years, perhaps we can catch up with each other someday soon. God Bless.

“ *To comfort all who mourn, and provide for those who grieve in Zion - to bestow on them a crown of beauty - instead of ashes, the oil of gladness instead of mourning, and a garment of praise instead of a spirit of despair. They will be called oaks of righteousness, a planting of the Lord for the display of his splendor. Isa. 61:3 Shelia and Jermiah Wilder, my prayers are with you and your family and may God always be your comforter and the peace that surpasses all understanding during your time of mourning. “ The Bible says that Heaven rejoices when a saint comes home. Where O death is your victory? Where O death is your sting? That's right JESUS took care of that over 2000 years ago! Praise the Lord. Sheila stay STRONG! Love Ya! Evangelist Aderine Odom

“ I'm Free Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free I'm following the path God laid for me. I took His hand when I heard him call; I turned my back and left it all. I could not stay another day, To laugh, to love, to work or play. Tasks left undone must stay that way; I found that place at the close of day. If my parting has left a void, Then fill it with remembered joy. A friendship shared a laugh, a kiss; Ah yes, these things, I too will miss. Be not burdened with times of sorrow I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow. My life's been full, I savored much; Good friends, good times, a loved ones touch. Perhaps my time seems all to brief; Don't lengthen it now with undue grief. Lift up your heart and share with me, God wanted me now, He set me free. ~© Linda Jo Jackson~ The Author has copyright © of the poems Page images and content copyright © 2000-2003 tcastle.com
