*Oh, my pa-pa, to me he was so wonderful
Oh, my pa-pa, to me he was so good
No one could be, so gentle and so lovable
Oh, my pa-pa, he always understood.*

*Gone are the days when he could take me on his knee
And with a smile he'd change my tears to laughter*

*Oh, my pa-pa, so funny, so adorable
Always the clown so funny in his way
Oh, my pa-pa, to me he was so wonderful
Deep in my heart I miss him so today.*

“ I first met Uncle Ed and Aunt Rita when they visited the Menzies at their lake place in NH. I was happy to meet the sister my mother (Anne) was so proud of and her husband.

Uncle Ed and Aunt Rita had a wonderful life. Married in Shanghai, where grampa John Quinn was posted while he was in the British Army. It is said that experience is the thing of extreme value in life. That experience is the key to life and happiness for others. Uncle Ed shared his experience, values and energies in business, in family and community life and in his church.

I regret that distance, circumstance and time limited my contact with this admirable man.

He now walks the streets of Heaven hand in hand with his beloved wife, Rita.

“ Dear Michele and the entire Le Moal Family,
My thoughts and prayers are with you at this difficult time. It is quite clear from the obituary and thoughts and reflections placed at this website that your father, Edmond, was a remarkable man whose achievements, volunteer work, military and charitable service will long be remembered, and always respected. I hope you find solace in knowing that many friends are thinking about you and wishing you comfort at this time. With Deepest Sympathy,

“ My thoughts and prayers go out to the family and friends of Edmond. He was a very special man. I remember our conversation about golf and would've liked to have played a round with him, perhaps in heaven.

“ My thoughts and prayers are with the Edmond J. Le Moal family at this time of sadness. There are no words that can fill the emptiness in your heart, but may many warm memories and the caring of friends and family remain. My first recollection of Uncle Ed and Aunt Rita was at Christmas in 1945 or 1946 when they came to visit us in Lawrence, Mass. Even to me as a 3 to 4 year old child they looked so impressive in their uniforms. It wasn't until years later that I learned how important their roles were during World War 2 and how famous they were. Uncle Ed was an amazing and intelligent man. He was definitely the epitome of a real gentleman who was admired and loved by everyone who was fortunate enough to know him. He will be sadly missed by everyone. May your loving memories bring you comfort, warmth and peace.
