“ Dear Mary, Edward, and Family,

I was deeply saddened to learn of the passing of Ed, a remarkable man whose life was a testament to faith, kindness, and service. Please accept my heartfelt condolences during this time of profound loss.

Ed Ricci was so much more than a distinguished lawyer and Georgetown University graduate; he was a pillar of our community and a living embodiment of the Gospel of Matthew. His unwavering commitment to the words, "Whatever you did for the least of these you did for me," was evident in every aspect of his life. Through his dedicated service on numerous charitable boards, Ed touched countless lives and made an indelible impact on all who were fortunate enough to know him.

His strong Catholic faith was the foundation upon which he built a life of compassion and generosity. Ed's actions spoke volumes about his character and his deep commitment to helping those in need. He now joins the ranks of the saints, reunited with his beloved daughter Irene in heaven. This thought brings a measure of comfort, knowing that they are together in eternal peace. May you find comfort in the words of 1 Corinthians 2:9 - "What no eye has seen, nor ear heard, nor the heart of man imagined, what God has prepared for those who love him."

I am proud and honored to have called Ed my friend. His legacy will live on in the memories of all who were blessed by his presence and in the many lives he changed for the better. May we all strive to emulate his spirit of service and kindness in our own lives.

Please know that you are in my thoughts and daily prayers. May God's grace and the support of loved ones bring you comfort during this difficult time.

With sympathy and love,

Deacon Don Battiston
