“ Dear Vivian, I did not get to know Ed as much as I would have liked. What I did learn about him impressed me very much. I liked his easy smile and friendly way around strangers like me when we met at our 50th reunion. I enjoyed watching the two of you on the dance floor. the love you two shared was evident to all. In cowboy parlance the two of you "yoked up well together."

Love,

“ I remember our first Blackfoot River float. Your raft and huge rocks didn't mix well that day! But the laughter and smiles we shared afterwards was well worth it! Getting to share our wedding day with you last summer will be an ever lasting memory. Thank you so much for making such a long trip! May you rest in peace, Ed. You will be greatly missed. We love you. Cheers!!!

“ Our sympathy goes out to the family of Ed Riddle. He was a classmate and friend of mine dating back to Ashland High School days. It happend that his sister Kay and I settled in Miamisburg, OH and are the best of friends. My husband golfed with him and we enjoyed having dinner with him and Kay during his visit here last summer. Eddie was always the same, warm and friendly and ready to share remembrances with old friends. Sincerely, Janet And Earl Nunn

“ Ed was a warm and caring friend. He had big hands to hug you with, a warm heart, and always a smile. He always talked of his family with much admiration and love. We miss his daily e-mails, and summer won't be the same without his annual visit to fish and golf.
