

Elsie A. Simpson

February 24, 1934 - February 10, 2025

Elsie Miller Simpson, 90, passed away peacefully surrounded by family on February 10, 2025, at Good Samaritan Vitas Hospice Healthcare, West Palm Beach, Florida.

Just shy of her 91st birthday, Elsie was born on February 24, 1934, in Cassadaga, NY, a long-time resident until she and her husband William (Bill) Simpson moved to West Palm Beach in 1999.

Growing up she was an avid horseback rider and graduate of CVCS Class of 1952 where she was a cheerleader. She enjoyed downhill and cross-country skiing, loved to cook, bake, sew, and paint having created many memorable community murals and personal art pieces. She was a member of the Cassadaga Garden Club, in 1972 opened Simpson's Wig Salon in Jamestown, NY, loved the beauty walking around Cassadaga Lakes, her beloved cats and singing with her girls.

Elsie will be remembered living each day with a radiant smile, flowing through life moving to the rhythmic beat of music and a good big band tune.

Married on October 6, 1956, she was predeceased in death by her husband and her parents Clarke and Mary (Dragon) Miller.

She is survived by her children Sandra (Per) Andreasen, Susan Morrin and her partner Jim Verrochi, three grandchildren, Shane Andreasen, Chelsey Andreasen and Mackenzie Morrin and siblings Grace (Bob) Abersold Kennelley, Antoinette (Nettie) Moore, Richard (Dick) Miller, and many nieces and nephews.

Elsie cherished her family and friends. Memorials can be made to Chautauqua Hospice & Palliative Care or Vitas Hospice Healthcare. A private memorial service will be held at a later date.
