“For Erika Remember me not for any infliction upon me But for the shape of the smile on my face Don't think about my mind's clumsiness or confusion Instead think of how I exuded my own special grace I was here to bring my kindness and laughter Asking for nothing in return but the same Creating fond memories through familiarity For all those who thusly remember my name I was fortunate to call friends family And family was there to remedy all that ailed In a lifetime I walked across battlefields And have succeeded as much as I failed Yet, every opportunity given was a gift Each instance, a lesson learned in time Throughout it all, the ups and downs No heart was more grateful than mine Remember me not for any flaws or imperfections Only the pleasant memories which best you know Recall them, replay them, repeat them For this way, you can take me with you, wherever you go JMAIbert

“ Erica was the first person I met over 20 years ago in JTAA, when she was signing my 6-yr-old daughter up to play soccer. She was so confident and outgoing, cheerful and enthusiastic, that I was thrilled we were joining the JTAA sports league. As luck would have it, Erica's daughter, Danielle, played on the same team as our daughter, so we got to know Erica over the years, and we enjoyed her enthusiasm for our daughters' team and her love of ALL sports. We always recognized Erica's voice at the games when she got really excited over a wrong ref call or some other infraction on the field. Erica was always at Danielle's soccer games, cheering on the teams' wins or losses as well. My husband Rich and I extend our deepest condolences to the Enrico family and all of Erica's extended family and friends. We know she will be missed.

“ I was very saddened to hear this news today. I was a former co-worker of Erika's and she had such courage, determination, and positivism, I was sure she would win this battle. My thoughts and prayers are with her family, friends, and all those who knew and loved her. Do not stand at my grave and weep, I am not there; I do not sleep. I am a thousand winds that blow, I am the diamond glints on snow, I am the sun on ripened grain, I am the gentle autumn rain. When you awaken in the morning's hush I am the swift uplifting rush of quiet birds in circling flight. I am the soft star-shine at night. Do not stand at my grave and cry, I am not there; I did not die. -
