Eugene Monahan

2/5/23 – 10/21/10

Age 87, of Jupiter and formerly of Scarsdale, NY, passed away with his family at his side on October 21, 2010. Gene was a World War II Naval salvage diver who worked on the SS Normandie. He later joined the NYPD as a member of the harbor patrol and worked in the family business, Colgate Contracting Company. He moved to Florida in 1967 and served as a court deputy with the Broward County Sheriff's Dept. He is survived by his wife of 64 years, Dorothy; his son, Jim of Vero Beach; two daughters, Patricia of Lighthouse Point and Dory of Jupiter. He was predeceased by his only granddaughter, Kathleen in 2007. Gene will be truly missed. He lives on in the light and is now with his loving granddaughter and other family members who predeceased him. We love you Pop! Services will be held at 1 PM, Saturday, October 23, 2010 at the Taylor & Modeen Funeral Home, 250 Center St., Jupiter, FL. Friends are invited to meet with the family from 12 – 2 PM, Saturday at the funeral home. In lieu of flowers, please make donations to Hospice of Palm Beach County, 5300 East Ave., West Palm Beach, FL 33407.

“ We knew your father through the daughters. He was a kind and gentle man who cared for his entire family. He faced many of life's obstacles head on and never wavered. He lived life as one should and we will always remember that. Love and peace to the family at this period of grief.
