“ He was a distant relative--probably a third cousin. I tried to meet him once years' ago in Manhattan, but only got his card. i just tried to pursue it again, having run across this card, and this is what I found. I wish I had tried harder much earlier and gotten to know him. My condolences to his family. Sincerely, Evalyn Hughes Carter

“ I am saddened to hear of Evan's death. We were good friends at the Academy and after. We spent the summer of 1959 in Europe together with Evan's uncle Harold. It is tough to see "that old gang of ours" grow smaller.

“ Evan was a long-time, very dedicated member of Christ Church Canaan when he and Peter were in Norfolk. With his good humor, generous spirit, and perpetual optimism, he was always a stand-out member of this tightly-knit church family. He devoted years to the vestry, headed numerous fundraising efforts, and generously served as Senior Warden for several years. During that time, he rekindled relationships between the church and former parishioners who had left the church, bringing them back to worship and giving them a caring church family again.

My own family loved Evan from the first, and we were always glad to spend any time with him that we could--he always brought charm, incredibly good manners and taste, and good cheer to everyone.

He blessed everyone who was lucky enough to have him in their lives.

With our condolences and much love,

Lynn Curtis

“ Oh, how we miss Evan! Our hearts and prayers are with you and your family. L We had such a wonderful visit with Evan last July...his happy laughter was so joyous and we always had the greatest of times together. Judson and Evan met at Sewanee, and their friendship endured all of those years...it was easy to love Evan, he truly had a sparkling personality...he was one of a kind, and the our lives are a little less bright without him.

*I originally met Evan back in the 1970's and he always had the sharpest mind and funniest quick wit about him. We lost touch when I moved to Massachusetts. Today, in 2021, I had a dream about him and Peter and decided I had to call him in CT. The only phone number I had for him from days gone by. My search led me to his obituary. I couldn't possibly explain the sadness I feel... and, all those years that have passed without contact.
