“ Fannie with all of our hearts we will forever miss you. From hearing your voice on the phone to spending time with you on our trips to Florida. Your relationship with your great granddaughter was truly special and we only could have wished that your great grandson would have been able to meet and love you too. I know your holding and loving him before we are able to and knowing you were able to feel his kicks is something that we will always treasure.

*Always in our hearts we love you Fannie

“ I remember growing up in Hauppauge NY and having Aunt Fran and Uncle Henry and our cousins gathering for New years Day for sauerbraten my mom made every year. We always had a great time spending the holiday together and the day was always finished with a pinnacle game. I could talk to Aunt Fran for hours. She was always so sweet. She will truly be missed. Hope you're enjoying yourself back with Uncle Henry, my mom and dad and the rest of our family in Heaven. ❤️🙏
