“ Peter and I wish to express our deepest sympathy to Jim and family. Florence and Jim would walk every morning in the neighborhood, and we became acquainted in our meetings "on the road". Florence always was color coordinated, her hat matching her T-shirt, and she was always so refreshing in her happy demeanor and cheerful greetings. She will be missed, and remembered always as such a wonderfully happy and upbeat person.

“ Thoughts and prayers to the Dudley family. While we didn't spend much time together, I still remember the house on Hypoluxo Road with the big tree in the back. May you find comfort in the memories you have.
